

Funeral Songs

If you're looking for a funeral song to play at your babies funeral, you may find it helpful to look through some of the suggested songs below.

These have been suggested by bereaved families and others who felt they offered comfort, meaning or helped put into words some of what they were feeling.

Winter Bear - Coby Grant

Hold My Girl- George Ezra

Bare Neccessites - Disney, Instrumental

Unforgettable- O'Neill Brothers

Over the Rainbow- Eva Cassidy

Only Time- Enya

Dancing in the sky- Liv Harland

I Giormi- Ludovico Einaudi

How long will I love you- Ellie Goulding

The Lark Ascending

Slipping Through my fingers- Abba

True loves first kiss- Snow White

A mother's prayer- Celine Dion

You'll be in my heart- Phil Collins

Edelweiss- Sound of music

Evening Star- Ron Adelaar
Baby Mine- Dumbo
Songbird- Fleetwood Mac
I can't help falling in love
Lullaby (Goodbye my angel)- Christina Perri
The girl that never was- James Blunt
Never enough- Greatest Showman
Once upon a dream- sleeping beauty
Butterfly Waltz- Brian Crane
There you'll be - Faith Hill
My Girl
Me- Coco
Lullabye- Billy Joel
Turning page- Sydney Rose
Angel- Jimmy Hendrix
Small Bump- Ed Sheeran
For Good- Wicked
Free Fallin'- John Mayer
Bigger than whole sky- Taylor Swift
Ceilings- Lizzie McAlpine

“Remember if it’s a popular song you will hear it without warning, think about how you may feel at that time”